Meeting Minutes

Harald opened the meeting. Now that it is the height of the hurricane season, it is critical that all of the members' contact information is up to date if it is necessary to get in touch with you before, during and after severe weather.

There was a Stafford County boat tax meeting on Sept. 6. Let the supervisors know that you are against this tax.

There was discussion about the hydrilla and how to remove it. He will look into professional equipment to remove it.

Gary Vineyard will head the committee for this year's Parade of Lights in December.

Vice Commodore – Gary Farrell:

We are still waiting for Mike's Glass to respond to repairing the sliding glass door.

There was a 3rd pump out for the year at $150.

The club's first wedding went well.

Check the work schedule on next page for your work assignment month.

Rear Commodore – Jerry

Rice: The pilings were straightened at the August workday. There was discussion about the hydrilla problem. Calls will be made to find out about methods of removing the plants at the root.

There are still some outstanding slip holders to have not submitted their insurance documents. Please turn in to Jerry as soon as possible.

Fleet Captain - Andy Myruski:

Aquia Harbor's end of summer party will be Sept. 17 & 18. There will be a trip to Oversons on Sept. 30. The Parade of Lights will be Dec. 3 & 4.

Secretary – Suzanne Auble:

There were 32 members and 9 guests at the August meeting.

Treasurer: Virginia Hodge:

The books are all in order and all bills paid.

Membership - Nancy

Vineyard – Bill & Holly
Cumberland are our newest members, making our total membership stand at 42. Welcome Bill & Holly!! A new application was submitted and will be voted on in September.

Programs & Attendance – Mike Galati

The August dinner was hosted by Dyan Stott and Joan Elmlund. Thank you very much for a wonderful dinner. The September meal will be crabs and also hot dogs/burgers. Please call Ron Cheek if you want to eat crabs so he can get enough for everyone. See the box below for the menu for the remainder of the year.

New Business: Call or write to Stafford County supervisors and tell them not to raise taxes on boaters!!

Old Business: The Plaque won at the Float In is displayed in the club house. The club keeps it until next year.
