Commodore – Gary Farrell

Gary opened the meeting with Angelo Christiano saying a prayer. The nominating committee presented the slate of officers. Elections will be held at the November meeting and additional nominations will be taken from the floor at that time. Gary requested if you wish to nominate someone please be sure they know about it and agree to it and check eligibility for a position on the board (bridge).

Vice Commodore – Jerry Rice

Jerry thanked everybody who helped on the workdays to repair the floor and doors on the heads, and the lighting changes in the club house. He also thanked Don Basham for painting and Suzanne Auble and Mike Galati for leave racking.

Rear Commodore – Ron Cheek

Ron reminded everybody to remove there boats from the docks by the end of November. He thanked the people who helped take the pontoon out of the water for the winter season.

Fleet Captain – Gary Vineyard

Gary announced the management at the Alexandria City Marina has changed and the staff is very boater friendly. Several people from the club attended the annual Frost Bite Cruise to Port Kinsale Marina. All attendees had a very good time under excellent weather conditions.

Secretary – Harald Seiler

Harald asked for all members to sign the attendance book! He also ask to fill in the work hours on the book provided.

Treasurer – Paul Wireman

All bills are paid and we are within the budget for this year. We may have some money left over this year to start the planed building addition.

Membership – Charlie Wilkerson

We have no outstanding applications for membership at this time. We currently have 43 memberships and 2 honorary memberships.

P & A – Ray Bowser

Ray was absent at this meeting, Ron Cheek filled in for him and announced we will have a Chili cook off competition at the next meeting. The oyster feast was very good as always. For the October meeting we had deep fried oysters, steamed oysters & Peggy's famous soups. Thanks for all the work and the side dishes.

PRYCA Del. - Don Basham

Don spoke about the PRYCA COW dinner dance and ask for all to make there reservation for this event.

CBYCA Del. – Angelo Christiano
