Commodore – Gary Farrell

Gary opened the meeting with Angelo Christiano saying a prayer, following with speaking about the PRYCA Boatr program: many members attending the program and should have it completed by the start of the 2008 boating season Gary also appointed Andy Myruski, Roger Baxter and Renay Galati as the nominating committee for the 2008 Bridge Election.

Vice Commodore – Jerry Rice

Jerry reminded everyone on the upcoming workday October 13, 2007. Many hands will be needed for this day (repairs on the floors in the heads and a, electrical power to the shed and a complete overhaul on the interior lighting off the clubhouse). We will enhance the atmosphere with new and additional lighting. An estimate is in the works for adding a roof over the Barbeque Area.

Rear Commodore – Ron Cheek

Ron said thank you to all members who help to keep the dock in good shape, and hopes we will have no damage during this hurricane season. Ron also reminded boaters to send him a copy of there updated insurance policies.

Fleet Captain – Gary Vineyard

Gary announced on October 19, 20 & 21, 2007 members of the club will go on a frostbite cruise with 7 boats attending. This late season trip is scheduled to the lower Potomac River and Yeocomico

River to end at Port Kinsale Marina. Any additional members like to join this trip are very welcome.

Secretary – Harald Seiler

Harald asks for all members to sign in the attendance book! He also explained the new application for membership forms and requirements.

Treasurer – Paul Wireman

All bills are paid and we are within the budget for this year.

Membership – Charlie Wilkerson

Charlie introduced the prospective members John and Heather Surin and their on there application to become a member to the club.

P & A – Ray Bowser

Ray thanked Ron Cheek and all members who helped with the Crabs feast and all the people who supplied so many wonderful side dishes and desserts!

For the October meeting we will have deep fried oysters, steamed oysters & Peggy's famous soups.

PRYCA Del. - Don Basham

Don was on a cruise in Alaska and did not attend the meeting.
