The 2010 PRYCA Change of Watch Ball was a fantastic time!!!! PRYCA Commodore, Harald Seiler, PRYCA Rear Commodore, Don Basham and ALL of PRYCA went far out of their way to make this event one for the record books!!! The hospitality was wonderful, the dinner was superb and the band was one that not many sat down for!!!!!!

Landmark shined!!!! We had the largest number of members in attendance. Way to go Landmark!!!!

Upon arrival at the Hilton, we enjoyed the hospitality suite sponsored by PRYCA and Quantico Yacht Club, we mingled with other member clubs, enjoyed great food and beverage, then we gathered in the ballroom for cocktails. All attending were dressed in their finest. The gathering started with a Color Guard procession, then we received the invocation written by our own Angelo Christiano, we looked on as the 2009 PRYCA Board of officers introduced the 2010 PRYCA Board of officers, ate a fine meal and celebrated by dancing the night away!!!! Cheri Seiler brought the stuffed dancing chickens for the ever loved...Landmarks own creation... "Chicken Dance"!!!! After dancing the night away, we retreated to the hospitality suite for more wonderful food and conversation! In the morning, members met in the hospitality suite for an informal brunch.

It takes a lot of time and preparation to put on an affair like this and I just want to say Thank You PRYCA and all who participated in this event!!!

Thanks to all Landmark members that attended for making this event one to remember!!!!!!!!!! For those that could not attend, we look forward to seeing you next year!!!!!! Mark your January 2011 Calendar.

See You on February 27th, NOON at the Waters Edge in Occoquan for our Landmark meeting. Thank you Burt Burstrom for suggesting this location.

Vice Commodore – Chevy Rice

The Blizzard of 2010.....If you want to know the results of the "Mom's Downhill Luge" I took the Gold!!!! It's all good! Looking forward to Spring and cleaning up the clubhouse and grounds so that we may move on to a great season!!!!
